

workforce
FORWARD 2011
a forum on education, employment, and economic development

roundtable recap

Dr. Betty Adams, Executive Director
Southern Virginia Higher Education Center

the data

What are your initial reactions to what you have seen and heard thus far?

What specific words or phrases come to mind?

workforce
FORWARD 2011

This slide will use Wordle

state data

based on your experience as workforce practitioners, how accurate are the data in describing the state situation: hot, warm, or cold?

very accurate, somewhat accurate, not very accurate?

briefly explain your answer.

workforce
FORWARD 2011

□

regional data

based on your experience as workforce practitioners, how accurate are the data in describing the state situation: hot, warm, or cold?

very accurate, somewhat accurate, not very accurate?

briefly explain your answer.

workforce
FORWARD 2011

Dr Adams – 1 Table did not respond

□

new programs

based on your experience as workforce practitioners and after hearing the data projections, what programs should be offered at the SVHEC that are not currently being offered?

Non-Credit
Trade / Vocational
IT, Green-Tech, Engineering

workforce
FORWARD 2011

In this slide we will list the Top 3 new programs recommended by participants. We can reference that a full list will be included in the executive summary report.

□

redundancies

what programs do you think are redundant or unnecessary?

workforce
FORWARD 2011

In this slide we will list the Top 3 redundancies recommended by participants. We can reference that a full list will be included in the executive summary report.

workforce
FORWARD 2011
a forum on education, employment, and economic development

